Mr P. Adams

Hello again,

Well the school year is rushing past with ever increasing speed. The year 11 pupils are now well into the new style GCSEs. I am pleased to say they are taking it very seriously and should be praised for how well they are coping with the pressure. The year 11 pupils had a very enjoyable celebration day with a final assembly, BBQ and non uniform day. They have been a great year group and we are sad to see them go but we wish them well for the future.

School funding continues to be a major issue for nearly all schools. The latest change to the funding formula has increased the schools budget but as I have explained previously any increase is negated by the increased financial pressure on schools. For example, the need for schools to cope with the consequences of cuts to services supporting children and families previously provided by the local authority. The government has not given schools any extra money to cover wage increases since 2010 so let us hope any pay rise this year is fully funded. I was able to meet with one of our local MPs, Owen Patterson, along with other north Shropshire secondary head teachers last week. He listened to our wide range of concerns. He did say he had not had many communications from parents regarding school funding, so please do let him know if you are concerned about this issue. Your support would be greatly appreciated and can only benefit your child.

As you are aware, issues of online safety and behaviour are an ever-present concern both in and out of school. In particular, encouraging young people to stay safe online and realise that they are accountable for their online behaviour. To help support parents and pupils we are hosting an E safety Parents' Information Evening on Wednesday 20th June at 6.30pm in the school hall with PC Crump. We also invite prospective parents of our upcoming year 6 pupils to attend. Our Parents' Forum will follow straight after the E-Safety Parents' Information Evening on Wednesday 20th June.

The year 8 pupils had a great weekend at Arthog Outdoor Education Centre over the early May bank holiday and they enjoyed the excellent weather. More details to follow in the next edition of Corbet News.

I hope some of you were able to visit the GCSE Art Exhibition; it was fantastic and showed how talented Corbet pupils are at using a variety of mediums; further details and pictures inside.

The year 8 Spanish trip to Cordoba is away this week and they are having a great time; I hope parents have been able to keep abreast of their activities via the school's MFL Facebook site.

There have been a number of school "Bake Off" competitions going on in school this half term and the standard of entries has been exceptionally high and very tasty.

I know quite a few of you attended the Military Wives Choir "Ecuador" fund raiser. This was a fantastic event that was hugely enjoyed by those who attended. My thanks go to those who organised this event.

The weather has been reasonably kind to us so there have been some summer sports fixtures, again further details follow inside.

It looks like the weather will continue to be good over half term so let's hope it's a good week for a mix of revision and relaxation.

Revised Report Dates & Year 10 Exam dates

Following discussions with Year 10 teachers we have decided that the Year 10 Exams are better suited towards the end of the academic year when more of the Course Content will have been taught and we can give the students a more realistic experience of the new GCSE Papers. The Year 10 exam period is between the dates of 18th June - 4th July. The students will be informed in assembly about the exam period and how to prepare and will be given their exam timetables closer to the date. The Year 10 reports will now be issued before May half term and will focus on areas that the students will need to work on for their Year 10 exams. We will also send out an Interim report for Year 10 at the end of the year to include the exam results and current forecast grades. The Year 7 reports dates have been amended and will now be emailed home on the following date:

- Year 7 Subject Report to parents: 28th June 2018
- Year 10 Subject Report to parents: 22nd May 2018
- Year 10 Summer Interim report to parents: 12th July 2018

Governors

If you would like to contact the Chair of Governors, Mrs Helen Scarisbrick please email the Clerk to the Governors, Mrs Jane Davies. davies.j@corbet.shropshire.sch.uk

Charities

Corbet pupils have raised monies for the following Charities this term:

Sport Relief: £599.01

Easter Egg Raffle: £121.10 - Split between Omushana Charity & CFA

Year 9 Cake Sale: £77.25 - Bone cancer Research

Colour Run : £352.70 was split between PE Dept. and Severn Hospice

Y8 Cake sale: £54.10 Macmillan Cancer Research

Y7 Cake sale : £130.10 Cancer Research

Blood Brothers

After the Easter holidays Year 10's got to go to Wolverhampton for the evening to watch a production of Blood Brothers by Willy Russell.

It was an amazing trip that means we now have a better understanding of the play ahead of our literature exams. The actors were amazing and the show made us not only laugh but cry too.

For younger years I would definitely recommend taking part if the opportunity arises.

Ella Wappner 10C

Geography - Lend with Care Charity

Year 9 pupils from the Corbet School have raised a total of £460 in geography lessons for the Lend with Care charity. This money has been used to help 162 entrepreneurs in microfinance schemes in 10 developing countries all around the world. This has helped around 500 family members and created 120 jobs. Microfinance gives small loans to people who would not normally be able to borrow money from banks. They can then invest it in a business and pay back the loan without crippling interest rates. The money is then re-invested in more entrepreneurs chosen by the pupils.

For example the Association Abahujintego from Rwanda requested a loan to buy more seeds for growing potatoes. The group is composed by 25 members: 19 women and 6 men. They are all farmers. This loan will help them buy seeds to grow potatoes and enable them to increase their yields and continue to develop their businesses. Frederic NTIBAKUNZE is one group member who has benefited a lot from the group as it has given him a step out of poverty. He has 3 children and like the majority of the group members he has been able to send them to school.

LOST PROPERTY

We have already accumulated a mountain of lost property, the majority of which is unnamed.

Parent/Guardians are welcome to come to reception to look during the school day.

MFL - 'Le Petit Prince' Design a Planet Competition

Miss Williams year 7 class made some fantastic cakes this term to consolidate some work on the French novel 'Le Petit Prince' which they had been studying in lessons.

This is just an example of some of the entries for the 'design your own planet' competition, which were also accompanied by very well written descriptions in French. Other entries included a beach ball planet and a gaming planet. The entire class really embraced the topic and put a lot of effort into their projects at home.

The winner of the competition was Hettie Walsh and Emma Herbet-Jones with their 'castle planet' design as they included two very detailed descriptions in both French and Spanish, as well as creating a very tasty cake.

Well done!

Shropshire Youth Theatre - Much Ado About Nothing

Recently two of our Year 9 pupils Lara Humphreys and Jenny Overall performed at Theatre Severn, Shrewsbury, in the Shropshire Youth production 'Much Ado About Nothing'. They have both done exceptionally well since joining the Youth Theatre last Autumn.

Chris Eldon Lee reviews 'Much Ado About Nothing', which Shropshire Youth Theatre present at Shrewsbury's Theatre Severn on the 28th and 29th of March. 'Much Ado' meets 'Hollyoaks'. Who'd have thought it?

But Shakespeare's seasoned singletons, Benedick and Beatrice, translate remarkably well into truculent teenagers...especially in the hands of such starry actors as James Marshall and Alice Butler.

James is very good at being spurned - and Alice is excellent at spurning. He portrays being puzzled and put upon with so much conviction, the audience just wants to mother him. Her tongue is so "shrewd", it is uncompromisingly wicked. And they look fabulous on stage too. James has the air of an innocent, floppy-haired Boy Band member; whilst Alice's facial expressions match those of a Liz Hurley who's just been told she has to make yet another Austin Powers movie. But they both handle Shakespeare's text in a very comfortable, modern manner - without being the slightest bit phased by its Elizabethan origins. You really could be watching an episode of 'Hollyoaks'; but with a better plot. It is however the team work that makes this production tick, as actor after actor steps up to the mark when their moment comes. 'Soaps' depend on gossip, tittle-tattle and mindless maliciousness; and director Andrew Bannerman has clearly spotted that 'Much Ado' provides them all for his young cast to exploit. The times of 'trial', when the ensemble stops joking and the confessions begin, were the most compelling passages. The stage was peopled with promising actors.

Oliver Turner is a fine orator who makes Shakespeare sing as if The Bard's a 21st century lyricist. He is blessed with an excellent voice, a naturalist delivery and innovative timing. Playing Leonato, he wears his heart on his sleeve, as he ranges from loving sympathy to absolute outrage with complete understanding. His accusatory scene with Jessica Halliday's Antonia is a special moment; as the grief and anger flow freely from both. The subject of their sadness is the ill-use of young Hero. It's not the part every ambitious actor would want, but I was most impressed with Lily Hayward's dignified and mature performance. Piety poured from her. Finn Ashley rose well to the role of her hard-hearted suitor...handing the severe mood swing from besotted to bedevilled with convincing contrition. Kai Davies also shone with a most professional portrayal of a highly penitent Borachio.

The 'Watch' raised a fair few smiles. Marshalled by Brandon Garner's pompous and rotund Dogberry (who reminded me of Oliver Hardy) and aided and abetted by a gangly James Townend (in a Stan Laurel hat), the comic line up made the most of their divergent dimensions ... as a policeman arrested a villain twice his height.

Shropshire Youth Theatre - Much Ado About Nothing

Inevitably in Youth Theatre, there are women playing men's part - but Abbie Townend and Jenny Everall turn necessity into advantage with sincere performances as wise and worldly counsellors.

Please excuse me for not mentioning everyone. Judging by the dress rehearsal, no one will let the side down on opening night.

The production also looked extremely good. You could almost smell the Mediterranean. Beverley Baker's costumes - black capes and blood red frocks - were beautifully set against high, rough-cast, limestone walls. The scene is complete with a fairy-light shrine, so reminiscent of island life. The fact that the tiny Mother Mary within it looked a little like a Barbie Doll who had taken Holy Orders brought a smile to the lips. The authentic music and celebratory dances set the seal on a well-thought out and pacey production.

WELL DONE everyone.

Corbet Alumni

Corbet school wants to keep in touch with students after they leave school.

The Corbet School has been a big part of your life, but even once you have left, the school can still provide opportunities to learn new skills and maybe get the job you want. If you stay in touch perhaps you can coach one of the sports teams, help set up community events, hear about career opportunities or maybe help set up a school reunion.

Think about where you want to be in five years time and about the things you plan to do, would not it be great to come back and talk to Corbet students about all the amazing things you have achieved. It will help them see what's possible and how they can achieve it too.

So why not sign up to the Corbet's network today and we will keep you connected with the school after you leave. You will receive emails to keep you in the know.

You can keep in touch either by:

Follow the Corbet Alumni Facebook Page.

School Library :

In Spring, we turned our attention to fund raising to enable us to purchase the new fiction titles requested by students. We have withdrawn a number of 'out of fashion' books and these are now on sale for 20p or 50p per copy depending on condition. So far, we have raised £25. Please pop down to the Library to browse and buy.

Thank you to Shrewsbury Morris Dancers who (for small donations) gave homes to Mrs Brett's Mexican Hat seedlings. This has added £7.50 to our fund raising pot. Every penny counts!

In the midst of exams we are squeezing in a flash book sale (three books for the price of two). At the time of going to press - in spite logistical issues - we are guaranteed at least five free books.

Friday lunchtimes for Year 9s; we need more readers please. If you are interested, please see Luke Broadly, James Hamer or Mrs Brett for further details.

LIBRARIAN NOTICEBOARD

Congratulations to Hufflepuff, our March winners and Slytherin, our April winners. Chocolate treats were shared!

Thank you to Gryffindor and Slytherin for the 'best bubbles' about life in the Library:

The Library is a safe place where you can be part of a family through friendships with other year groups. Working in the Library helps with your language and social skills as well as making you more independent.

The Library is a really friendly environment where you learn new skills and make new friends.

Two of our Senior Librarians have celebrated success this month. Well done Molly Creaser-Ogden, recipient of a BTEC Level 2 Award in Peer Education. Congratulations to Olivia Wade for her promotion to Lance Corporal in the Harlescott detachment of the Army Cadet Force.

Mrs Brett and the Librarian Team said a fond farewell to our Year 11 Librarians and Library Friends. As a result of the examination timetable, we held our Librarian Leavers' Party ridiculously early but no one seemed to mind!

Abi Purslow decided not to become a Librarian but remains our top reader for 2018. Thanks Abi for pushing Mrs Brett to read even more fantasy fiction!

Abi (Lily Evans) Purslow

Well, we have never had so many Year 11 Librarians. It has been a pleasure watching these individuals grow into confident, well mannered young adults who are a credit to the School. Thank you for all your hard work in our Library. Running with the Harry Potter theme and recognising the general aversion to photographs, 'au revoir' to ...

The Great Corbet Bake Off

This term we have had five successful competitions of The Great Corbet Bake Off.

All year groups have competed in four rounds- large cakes, cupcakes, tray bake, and biscuits helping their houses earn points towards the house trophy as well as competing individually.

There have been many fantastic entries and the judges have been very impressed with all the effort that has gone into all the bakes.

The cakes entered are then sold to raise money for a charity chosen by those participating. This year a total of over £350 has been raised which has been given to the following charities: Macmillan Cancer Support, The Bone research Trust, Place2be and Cancer Research UK. We would like to say a big thank you to all those who have supported the Bake off so far this year both in school and at home.

Military Wives Choir

The Ecuador team 2019 have been working tirelessly to keep raising funds for their personal £4000 target.

The team hosted an evening with the Military Wives Choir from Shawbury, who kindly donated their time for the cause. The evening was very well attended, and plenty of songs to take the audience down memory lane.

Proceedings were kicked off by the drum corps, who got everyone in the mood for the entertainment to follow. Three choirs took to the stage: firstly the primary school choir from Baschurch; they didn't only sing their hearts out but showed off some dance moves too! The choir from the Corbet performed excellently, along with musical interludes by some very talented individuals.

All of this culminated in the crescendo which was the magnificent Shawbury military wives choir. They performed two sets, each one captivating the audience who showed warmth and appreciation in their rapturous applause.

The evening was a social occasion, whereby the tea, coffee and wine seemed to flow, all of which was soaked up by delicious cake!

The students spoke confidently to the audience about the cause of the fundraiser and along with the bar and raffle that they organised, the team raised just in excess of £1600! Each of those pupils would like to express their thanks to all those who attended and generously gave their time to make the evening the success it was.

Keep your eyes peeled for the next fundraising events including a sponsored cycle, Halloween disco, and a Christmas Fair!

Thank you,

RedRidge

Some year 7's went to the Redridge activity centre on Friday 23rd March. The activities that were included were: Indoor caving, archery, zip wire, rock climbing and kayaking. In the indoor caving there was a mini obstacle course, they were allowed to go in groups or on their own. At first they went in light then black with a torch then pitch black if they wanted to.

In archery they practised hitting the target with help from the coach and if they had time they played a game, where you picked the holiday you go on, who you go with and how you travel using the points on the target. Lots of people ended up going on holiday to a caravan in Wales with Mr Adams, and on a donkey!

In rock climbing they climbed up a rock climbing wall while attached to a harness, they then went on a rope swing from one side of the platform to a rope net. Then they climbed back up to the platform and went to the Abseiling rope. In the zip wire they were attached to the platform and when they went they were detached and they sat down in their harness.

Finally kayaking, in kayaking they learnt how to row the boat to different places and through difficult, shallow parts of the lake. After a long day they really enjoyed it and were all really tired!

Duke Of Edinburgh Award - Expedition 2

Sunny weather saw the seven Corbet walking groups hit the Shropshire Hills again, in their last practice expedition, before the final on 28th June 2018.

This event was a big learning curve for lots of the pupils from their navigation skills, through to realising that they have to pack their bags themselves!

The groups successfully completed the walk, and had some fantastic evening weather, witnessing the meteor showers across the clear night sky!

- The group were complemented by other campers in the campsite for their camping etiquette and courtesy when at the camp – Well done year 10!

The Corbet Colour Run

Over 120 students and staff were involved in the 1st Corbet Colour Run. Despite the Wintry weather, the fields were illuminated with colour, laughter and smiling faces, all for a good cause.

The Colour Run participants were warmed up by Year 10 sports Council members Liam R and I zzy. Following the warm up all runners gathered to create a Colour Cloud. On the count of 3, all runners threw their colour paint sachet into the air, thus lighting up the field and creating a huge impressive colour cloud.

Runners then made their way to the start line where they set off and ran / walked their way around the fields for 30 minutes. As they travelled around the field - sports council members and Corbet staff seemed to take great delight in throwing more paint over the runners.

The Corbet Colour Run

A huge thank you to everyone who took part in the inaugural Corbet Colour Run and helping to make it so enjoyable and successful. Half of the proceeds of the event have been donated to Severn Hospice and the remainder to the P.E. department to help with transport for P.E. fixtures.

Hopefully after the success of the 1st Colour Run we can make the event even bigger and more successful next year.

Year 8 Sport Leaders

Congratulations to the following pupils who have achieved their Sports Leaders awards.

Florence Wright, Evie Allen, Ceri O' Hagan, Imogen Owen, Sam Rowlands, Adam Tunnadine, Lauren Welch, Molly Mewis, Bethany Roberts, Thomas Harrison and Ella Mitchell.

They have been attending a Sports Leaders Course each Monday night after school since October, where they have looked at how to be a good sports leader, qualities needed and helped organise and run sports tournaments for the local Primary Schools.

Without their great efforts, time and commitment, the events would struggle to run and would not have been such a great success. Several teachers from the Feeder primary Schools have commented on how fantastic they have been in umpiring the various sports and how well they have worked with younger pupils, showing a patient, friendly manner.

Special praise to Florence and Evie who have attended every session and for their amazing commitment and leadership skills throughout the course

This last term has been very busy with Feeder Primary Schools competing to qualify for the North Shropshire qualifiers and The County Summer Games. The Sports Leaders have been involved in helping to organise and run the following tournaments – Dodgeball, New Age Kurling, Mini Tennis, Arrows Archery and Tri Golf.

On Sunday 13th May 2018, The Corbet School entered a team into the Shropshire School Aquathlon Relays for the first time. The event was held at Wrekin College and consisted of each team member swimming 100m and running 800m. The Corbet team did fantastically well and showed real determination against some very strong teams, finishing 3rd in their heat and 8th overall. We look forward to entering this competition again next year and appeal to any budding triathletes to see a member of the PE department if they are interested.
